Tour Description

Saurashtra Tour is popularly known as the 'Saurashtra Darshan'. Saurashtra Travel takes you to a different era altogether. Saurashtra Tourist Attractions are mainly the temples which are flooded with deities from all over India. The best of Saurashtra places to visit are Dwarka, Somnath, Rajkot Jamnagar and Palitana..

Saurashtra, as the name suggests, is indeed a region of one hundred kingdoms. It is indeed one of the most picturesque regions in Gujarat. Due to the princely history, its rich in antiquity and abundant in wealth. Well sculptured temples, forts, mosques and glittering palaces...all remind us of the glorious past. Their love for colour and artistry has touched every aspect of their lifestyle, and the handicrafts of the region enjoy the patronage of all the states of India.

Day 1 :-ARRIVE AHMEDABAD * ON TO JAMNAGAR (313 KM/ APPROX. 8 HOUR DRIVE)

Welcome to Ahmedabad, the largest city in Gujarat. On arrival at airport / railway station in Ahmedabad, you will be met and transferred to Jamnagar. On arrival, check-in to the hotel.

The rest of the evening is at leisure for independent activities.

Overnight in Jamnagar - None (Meals on your own).

Day 2 :-ON TO DWARKA (156 KM/ APPROX. 3 HOUR DRIVE)

This morning, drive to Dwarka.

En route, visit the Lakhota Lake, liveliest in the evenings, when people relax around the lake to enjoy the breeze and a chai, kulfi, or chaat from one of the many food stands, and at night the lake is beautifully lit. Lakhota Museum, originally designed as a fort such that soldiers posted around it could fend off an invading enemy army with the lake acting as a moat, the tower known as Lakhota Palace now houses the Lakhota Museum and Bala Hanuman Temple, on the southeast corner of the lake is the Bala Hanuman temple, famous for its continuous chanting of the 'Sri Ram, Jai Ram, Jai Jai Ram', for which it is even listed in the Guinness Book of World Records. Continue to Dwarka, on arrival check in to your hotel.

Later, visit Rukmini Temple and Dwarkadeesh Temples, the main temple at Dwarka, also known as Jagat Mandir. The grandeur of the temple is enhanced by the flight of 56 steps leading to the rear side of the edifice on the side of the river Gomti. The temple is built of soft limestone and consists of a sanctum, vestibule and a rectangular hall with porches on three sides.

Overnight in Dwarka (B)

Day 3 :-IN DWARKA

Today, proceed to the Beyt Dwarka, also known as Beyt Shankhodhar, is a small island and was the main port in the region before the development of Okha. In order to get there from Dwarka, one might need to first get to Okha port jetty (32 km), by either rail or road and then take a ferry or small boat. It offers opportunities to spot dolphins, marine excursions, camping and picnicking. An enormous 500 year old temple of Shri Krishna is a 15 minute away from here. The magnificent Dandiwala Hanuman Temple is situated about 5 km east of the Beyt Dwarka's main temple.

Followed by that, visit Kachoriyu temple which is dedicated to Shri Rama. It carries sculptures of Garuda (eagle), Shankha (conch shell), Chakra (sharp circular weapon), along with the idol of Lord Hanuman at the entrance. The pond situated near the temple is called Kachoriyu Talav. Towards the eastern seashore of Beyt Dwarka, if interested one can visit the shrine of Haji Kirmani Pir, who is considered one of the important Sufi saints, hailing from Kirman, Iran. There is a Gurudwara close to it and is believed to be the birthplace of Panjpyare's Sikh saint Shri Hukamchandji.

The rest of the evening is at leisure for independent activities.

Overnight in Dwarka (B)

In the morning, drive to Somnath via Porbandar.

En route visit Tara Mandir Planetarium, There is an overhead round screen inside the Tara Mandir planetarium with celestial bodies depicted on it. The scientific projection of these stars and planets, with the help of special effects, adds to the interest of the viewers.

Followed by Kirti Mandir, one of the famous tourist destinations of Porbandar. This place holds great religious significance as it is said to be the birth place of Sudama, the best friend and devotee of Lord Krishna. Also visit Chowpaty, which is the famous beach of Porbandar. It is located at a kilometer's distance, from the city. Chowpaty is a white sand beach. The magnificent view of the sea, with an exotic ambiance, brings in a lot many tourists and residents to the beach. The famous Huzoor Mahal is also located along the beach. This sprawling structure resembling a European mansion is located at the end of the beach.

On arrival at Somnath, check-in to your hotel.

Later, proceed to Bhalka Tirth, at this place, Lord Krishna was mistaken for a deer and wounded by an arrow. North of this sacred spot is the Sun Temple. Proceed for Somnath temple. The legendary shore temple of Somnath is one of the twelve most sacred shrines dedicated to the Lord Shiva. The temple contains the jyotirlinga of Lord Shiva.
