visited on earlier day) or Edakkal caves and Soochipara waterfalls. (any 2 set of sightseeings can be done because of locations)

Meenmuttywaterfalls :this waterfall is one of the topmost attractions in Wayanad. The three tiered waterfall, at a height of 1000 ft, is one of the biggest waterfalls in Wayanad and the second largest in Kerala. The name 'Meenmutty' derived from the concept that fishes are blocked here. 'Meen' means 'fish' and 'Muttu' means 'blocked' and thus 'Meenmutty'. To reach this waterfall, you have to go for a two kilometer trek through the moist deciduous forest. Though it seems to be difficult, you will forgive the tiresome of the journey, once you reach the waterfalls. Meenmutty waterfall is considered to be a dangerous spot. So, you should be more careful while playing with the water. The best time to visit Meenmutty is from October to May. Visiting during monsoon season is not recommended.

Edakkalcaves : Edakkal caves are famous for its pictorial paintings (cave paintings), which are considered to be of 6000 years old. To reach the caves, one has to trek through the Ambukutty Mala. It will take around 45 minutes to climb the hill and you will not be disappointed in your trip to these historic caves. Edakkal is the only known place in India with Stone Age carvings. You can see here carvings belonging to Neolithic and Mesolithic age. The human figures of these caves have raised hair and some have beards. They all have archeological significance and are interesting too. Along with these pictorial carvings, you can also watch the Brahmi Script in Edakkal caves. Edakkal is said to have some links with Indus Valley Civilization too. Around 400 seals were discovered recently, which had shown its relationship with the ancient civilization.

Soochiparawaterfalls :Soochipara waterfall is a three tiered waterfall at Vellarimala in Wayanad. This waterfall, surrounded by dense green forest, is also known as Sentinel Rock Waterfall. A 20 minute drive from Meppadi in Wayanad will take you to this splendid waterfall. The name Soochipara derived from the words 'soochi' and 'para' means 'rock' and 'needle'. The name is apt as you can see needle shaped rock here.

You have to walk around 2 km to reach the waterfall, where vehicles can't move further. You have to pay a nominal fee for the entrance and camera. From the entrance you need to descend down to reach the falls. The water here cascades down from a height of 100 to 200 ft and this waterfall is an ideal place for trekking and rock climbing. You can sight a pool beneath this waterfall here you can go for swimming and bathing. Best time to visit Soochipara waterfall is during monsoon season as you can see the waterfall at its fullest. Evening at leisure to enjoy the resort and its activities. Dinner & Overnight stay at hotel.

Breakfast -Lunch -Dinner

DAY 8: Wayanad - Calicut - (90 Kms, 3 Hrs)

Today Morning after breakfast check out and transfer to Calicut Airport. Enroute photo stop at Lakkidi view point.

Lakkidi View Point :Famous for its mesmerising scenery, Lakkidi View Point is known for its nine hairpin curves and offers a splendid view of the mountains in Wayanad. The whole trip of Lakkidi View Point promises an unforgettable charm and beauty that should add to their bucket list of attractions in Wayanad.

Offering a bird's eye view of the magnificent surroundings, this place leaves you in search of words to describe the panorama that your eyes behold. It is also a famous picnic spot and often known as the 'Gateway of Wayanad'. Lakkidi is also known as the 'Gateway of Wayanad'.
